Hey lets not let this Cause swords to cross over a simple kiss
He, he just wished me well
He knows I'm moving on he can tell
So don't get mad at me
I'm dealing with this how I see
And if you want to stick around
This bridge might stand on solid ground
Why can't you see
Why can't you see
I'm trying to be forever strong
Why can't you see
Why can't you see I'm trying to be forever strong
It's plain to see
So plain to see
I'm holding on but who knows for how long
Hey say you understand
A friend indeed is a friend near at hand
And I know all the wrong he did
But a goodbye kiss seals tight the lid
And look I've walked away
Hope I can face another day
So try to appreciate
I'm finding it tough to control my own fate
Why can't you see
Why can't you see
I'm trying to be forever strong
Why can't you see
Why can't you see
I'm trying to be forever strong
It's plain to see
so plain to see
I'm holding on but who knows for how long
Forever strong
Forever strong
I'm trying to be forever strong
