Cant stay around, I keep moving
I dont even know where I'm going
I wanna be a million miles away, from here

I dont need no one to save me
I'll travel where the wind will take me
I feel my body elevatin', so high, so high

I wanna fly away from here
I wanna soar away from here
Take flight ight ight ight ight
Take flight ight ight ight ight
Take flight ight ight ight ight
Take flight ight ight ight ight

Everything's packed and I am leaving
No need for me to stay around I'm gone
Dont try to follow me it's hopeless
My heart has already taken off

I dont need no one to save me
I'll travel where the wind will take me
I feel my body elevatin', so high, so high

I wanna fly away from here
I wanna soar away from here
Take flight ight ight ight ight
Take flight ight ight ight ight
Take flight ight ight ight ight
Take flight ight ight ight ight

Will Young:
You on fire that's something I admire
Pack up your attire and fly a little higher
Everybodys always tryna rescue you
There's still a little bit of love thats left in you
Look what the pressure do
Make diamonds
You sparkle when you shining

Keep running for that Heisman (Heisman, Heisman, Heisman, etc.)

Take flight ight ight ight ight
Take flight ight ight ight ight
Take flight ight ight ight ight
Take flight ight ight ight ight

I wanna fly away from here...
I wanna soar away from here...
