I've been standing side of the street Searching for a cloudless room to sleep it with my dream
All that I wanted, yeah, was in my hands
I could turn it right or walk away until I reach the end
There I met a blind man and he taught me
When all is lost and you can hardly breathe Don't fall on the ground, take your chances, Walkin' tall, try to start it all again with your arms
Running with the wind
Follow up your dream It's hard to say but it's easy to forget every name
You're just a moment in the rush of someone's clock
But your heart beats like a thunder in the rainy round of applause
I been walkin' in an endless road
Just to throw away all the locks of my door
I've been looking for another soul
Who kept my secrets tight like the gold in the mind, yeah
But the blind man told me to be true
You must put yourself in everything you'll do he raised up his glass to his ear and he listened to the sea
There I understood he saw better than me
Running with the wind
Follow up your dreams
It's hard to say but it's easy to forget every
You're just a moment in the rush of someone's
But your heart beats like a thunder in the rainy round of applause
Solo / chorus
He saw better than me

He saw better than me
He saw better than me
