If you're far away
how is it that still I got your smell on skin?

There must be reason why still I feel your breathing
even if you're far away

If you're really far away, far from me how is it that I can feel you so near?

Well if you're far away, how is it that still that sunset's colors on the sand

Project the shades of two old men who run along the summer hand in hand?

If you're really far away,
oh so far from me
how is it that I can feel you right here?

Â

Baby if you're far away how is it I can pull you close to me?

If you're really far away why do dreams seem my true reality?

Baby if you're far away I can't believe it
Cause you're not far away , I got you in my soul

Â

How is it that still there are sweet words into my ears?

There must be reason why still I see you smiling even if you're far from home

If you're really far away, hell, so far from me How is it that I don't need to close my eyes to feel that?

Â

If you're far away how is it I can pull you close to me?

If you're really far away why do dreams seem my
true reality?

Baby if you're far away I can't believe it
Cause you're not far away , I got you in my soul

Â

Mirror myself in a coffee cup

I wonder if the stars too cry teardrops,

Â

Baby, if you're far away how is it I can pull you close to me?

If you're really far away why do dreams seem my
true reality?

Baby if you're far away I can't believe it

~Cause you™ re not far away , I got you in my soul
