A long, long time ago
In a land so far away
Rode a Prince in his father's field
On a horse named Cumberland

A long, long time ago
In a field so far away
Danced a girl named Genvieve
A flower of her Father's land

Will you rescue me
Will you rescue me
Apres vie cliches
Apres vie cliches

On a ranch called Neverland
Lived a boy who would be a man
And this prince was the king who ruled
This boy who would be a man

In a city in a Northern Land
Three boys played in a band
Young men reached the sun so near
And they found that the end was near

Will you rescue me
Will you rescue me
Apres vie cliches
Apres vie cliches

A long, long time ago
Blue Kings in this town abode
Came a boy with a golden song
And he sang for the royal throng

In this town by the watercourse
He sings words of white and blue
In a keep he hides his curse so well
Soon heaven calls him home to dwell

Will you rescue me
Will you rescue me
