She wakes up every mornin, puts the coffee and bacon on
She roams the house in a t-shirt, full of holes
She pours a cup and reads a verse, from the book of John
And then she comes and lets me know, she loves me

(Chorus)

She's a Simple Country Girl no frills or laces
She likes her hair down and nothin on her feet
She's more than I could hope for
Much more than I deserve
This Cowboy's world
A Simple Country Girl
(End Chorus)

After supper we'll go ridin
We'll leave our cares behind
Sometimes we get caught out in the rain
Then I'll start to chase her
All the way back home
Though she's soppin wet
She's laughin all the way

(Chorus)

She's a Simple Country Girl no frills or laces
She likes her hair down and nothin on her feet
She's more than I could hope for
Much more than I deserve
This Cowboy's world
A Simple Country Girl
(End Chorus)

(Bridge)

She'll put on her favorite dress and dance out on the porch
While I'm strummin Liza Jane
It feels like I'm in heaven cuz I know that I've been blessed
Since her love, nothin's been the same
(End Bridge)

(Chorus)

She's a Simple Country Girl no frills or laces
She likes her hair down and nothin on her feet
She's more than I could hope for
Much more than I deserve
This Cowboy's world
A Simple Country Girl
(End Chorus)

She's my whole world
Simple Country Girl
