"These Walls"

Visit "These Walls" on MotoLyrics.com

In your heart there are oceans.
In your heart there are flowering trees.
Look inside and live inside these walls.
Your body yearns.
I'm not one to say I know what you go through
I only wanna open wide the window and let sunlight
through.
For you.
In your face, I see longing.
In your face, I see hopes and fears.
You've been locked for too long behind these walls.
Your body yearns.
I'm not one to say I know what you go through
I only wanna open wide the window and let sunlight
through.
For you.
Tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me
What you're feeling.
Tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me
What you need.
Tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me
Everything.
Take my hand and I'll lead you.
Take my word that I'll not deceive you.
I only want to carry you on beyond these walls
Your body yearns.
I'm not one to say I know what you go through
I only wanna open wide the window and let sunlight
through.
For you.
