The conversation ends here
No more room to breathe your own air
Youâ€™re tired and alone here
So you crumble down and become one of them

Still my eyes remain inexplicably dry

Watching you fall faster than I ever thought you would
fall
How can you all conform like its second nature to you?
Why canâ€™t you stay true?

Will you ever see the truth now?
Through the dirty panes of your lie-filled eyes
But youâ€™re happy and alive here (liar)
Youâ€™re only fooling yourself, you know inside

But still my eyes remain inexplicably dry

Watching you fall faster than I ever thought you would
fall
How can you all conform like its second nature to you?
Why canâ€™t you stay true?

You hypocrite! Get away
Stop poisoning my sight
Get away!
