(Verse)

Every day is a car alarm
That I don't know how to disarm
Where is the silence
That simple silence

(Verse)

Every day is a time bomb
Ticking louder till it goes off
Where is the silence
Where is it hiding

(Chorus)

Â'Cause everything is noise
Everything is screaming out
Everything is coming alive, all alive
Gettin' lost in the sound
I need to hear your voice
Reminding that at the end of the day
No matter what this time we'll be ok
Even through the noise

(Verse)

You're looking high and I'm looking low
It's the same any place I go
Where is the silence
Where is it hiding

(Verse)

Gonna come what it be
Things are getting kind of crazy
Where is the silence
Where is it hiding

(Chorus)

Â'Cause everything is noise
Everything is screaming out
Everything is coming alive, all alive
Gettin' lost in the sound
I need to hear your voice
Reminding that at the end of the day
No matter what this time we'll be ok

Even through the noise

(Bridge) x2

Whisper my name, whisper my name

When it's getting too high

Whisper my name, whisper my name

Tell me that it's alright

(Chorus)

'Cause everything is noise

Everything is screaming out

Everything is coming alive, all alive

Gettin' lost in the sound

I need to hear your voice

Reminding that at the end of the day

No matter what this time we'll be ok

Even through the noise
