I don't know where you came from I don't care where you been, or where you're going to I've been farther and wider than you'll ever be But what do you have to show for all your time and money
The respect of no one else except maybe you, and maybe me

[Chorus]

So why won't somebody please tell me where I'm going today
And how come nobody ever told me it would turn out this way

I'm sorry I never asked where you wanted to go I'm sorry I never thought you should have known Nobody ever told me where I'm going to, nobody ever warned me about you
And it all fell down in the smoke
