No no no no no nooooo no
Uh, wait

You, got to excuse me,
You see I went looking for yesterday.
That's where I think all the good memories,
Of you and me,
Went, yeah
So I'm swimming in a sea of forgetfulness,
Just to get a glimpse of the you I remember
Damn (Damn)
I miss ya,
Cause the one I'm looking at right now;

She looks just like,
Sounds just like,
Feels just like you.
But I'm so confused,
Cause she don't seem like you.

So when I get there I'll be drowning,
Drowning,
I'll be drowning,
In my memories.
When I get there I'll be drowning,
I'll be drowning,
I'll be drowning in my memories.
I'd rather be there than here.

I don't,
Want a lifesaver. (Na)
Unless it's going to save this love.
If it's not then just leave me right here.
Let me breathe in the moments I won't let go.

Uh,
I wish you'd get back to that girl,
The one that I remember as my lover.
Damn (Damn)
I miss her,
Cause the one I'm looking at right now;

She looks just like, (Uh)
Sounds just like, (Uh)
Feels just like you.
But I'm so confused,

Cause she don't seem like you.
So when I get there I'll be drowning,
Drowning,
I'll be drowning,
In my memories.
When I get there I'll be drowning,
I'll be drowning,
I'll be drowning in my memories.
I'd rather be there than here.
I'd rather be there than here.
Oh,
I'd rather be there than here
I'd rather be there than here,
Than here,
Than here.
