Yeah

It's getting harder to face, feels like I'm living with the enemy, the enemy

You play the strings on my heart, but you've forgotten the melody, the melody

I take the punches as we tear ourselves apart

Cause just a kiss from you will heal my deepest scars

Why can't we surrender to who we are? Are

There isn't meant to be a casualty

Have we lost what we're fighting for?

It was meant to be just you and me

Tell me if it's love or it's war (x2)

Tell me if it's love or it's war
