I look to the ancient skies everywhere i look there's another sun what will it matter
If i extinguish one

Evaluate the value
Evaluate your life

There is a price to pay
There is a price on your head
Evaluate the value
Evaluate your life

If you speak with a golden tongue
I'll listen with greedy ears
If you teach me how to close my eyes
I'll keep my conscience clear

Is there a purpose left to find by accident or by design It doesn't matter if your eyes are open when your mind is blind

Trapped under ice trapped by your hollow lies I sense my sun wont shine much longer but you will pay the price

you will pay the price

how could we ever forget what we have already learned with all the bridges we burned

review the consequence and think beyond only you and I

there's another way another ending to our tale real eyes realize real lies don't succumb to the paraphrase

If you speak with a golden tongue
I'll listen with greedy ears
If you teach me how
to close my eyes

must be another way this time we must be brave
real eyes realize real lies

So listen up and listen close
This is not the path I chose
I will take a stand right here right now
