would they let you see me when you need me on your way home I am undecided I can't hide it and I'm on my way home we're on our way home we're on our way home out of the blue a simple clue opens to you it reads this is a road to nowhere

this is the end in everyone
this is the end in everyone
out here

maybe I'm just frightened by the silence on my way home I am so enlightened I can't hide it I am on my way home
we're on our way home we're on our way home
it reads this is a road to nowhere
this is the end in everyone

love is a loss in everyone love is lost in everyone love is a loss with everyone I see I see
