Just stay with me forever
Our hearts are sewn together
Using needle and thread
Made of the three words I said
I love you
So now lay me to rest
Because next to you
My night nightmares turn to dreams at their best

And even when I sleep
(You're there with me)
You're there with me
So let a dream become reality
(Reality)
As soon as I awake
My eyelids peel back
And I seem to gaze upon your face
But I can't help but stare
At your breath, taking glare

Just stay with me forever
Our hearts are sewn together
Using needle and thread
Made of the three words I said
I love you
So now lay me to rest
Because next to you
My nightmares turn to dreams at their best
