we might have friction sometimes and i know i am a selfish person believe me sweetie i understand completely just know that you make me happy fighting and screaming
begin the deep breathing cause you know i cant live without you hearts have been broken and we have all spoken we have felt love and pain too I would walk through storms trust me darling every tear from your eyes starts attacking my heart and it starts to soak in I'd rather take death than to hear them

but you know i cant live without you
we've felt love and pain too x2 fighting and screaming

and we have both spoken

believe me sweetie i understand completely
just know that you make me happy.
