Excuse me if I stutter, these words don't come cheap
And in my confusion it's comfort I seek
I come with my heart in my hand and you think
Why do I repeat this mistake?

You've always said everything I want
And everything I needed to hear
You didn't mean it, and that is my escape
I turn the other way

Don't tell me something that I heard before
I knew this is coming but it's love you swore
Now my heart is breaking in this silent storm
Don't tell me something, baby
Don't tell me nothing, baby

Don't tell me something that I've heard before
I knew this is coming but it's love you swore
Now my heart is breaking in this silent storm
Don't tell me something, baby
Don't tell me nothing, baby

Excuse me if I stutter, I don't wanna break your beat
Did you really expect me to bow at your feet?
I've run out of words and I've run out of time
I'll stand up and I'll testify

You've always said everything I want
And everything I needed to hear
You didn't mean it, and that is my escape
I turn the other way

Don't tell me something that I heard before
I knew this is coming but it's love you swore
Now my heart is breaking in this silent storm
Don't tell me something, baby
Don't tell me nothing, baby

Don't tell me something that I've heard before
I knew this is coming but it's love you swore
Now my heart is breaking in this silent storm

Don't tell me something, baby
Don't tell me nothing, baby

You make it easy to take my love back away from you
You make it easy, you know it's not what I wanted to do
You make it easy to take my love back away from you
You make it easy, you know it's not what I wanted to do

Don't tell me something that I heard before
I knew this is coming but it's love you swore
Now my heart is breaking in this silent storm
Don't tell me something, baby
Don't tell me nothing, baby

Don't tell me something that I've heard before
I knew this is coming but it's love you swore
Now my heart is breaking in this silent storm
Don't tell me something, baby
Don't tell me nothing, baby
