You said you needed love to warm you in the night
So you gave yourself to strangers, who left you crying at first light
You think the world you live in doesn't notice you But don't you worry, baby, I'll be there to comfort you
So take it easy, easy
Easy does it, baby, nice and slow, I'll take you anywhere the four winds blow
So weep no more, my lady, don't you cry
I can't paint your portrait with those tears in your eye
But I can give you love, every night and day An' we will walk together, the sun and moon will light our way
So take it easy, easy
Easy does it, baby, nice and slow, I'll take you
anywhere the four winds blow
I'll tell you something you'll understand Grab a hold now, baby, and I'll lead you to the promised land
I'll make you feel so good, make you feel alright Chase away the shadows and keep you warm at night, ooh, I'll keep you warm
Take it easy, easy
Easy does it, baby, nice and slow, I'll take you
anywhere the four winds blow
Gonna keep you smiling and satisfied Nothing but blue skies on a magic carpet ride
Take it easy, easy
Easy does it, baby, nice and slow, I'll take you
anywhere the four winds blow
Anywhere the four winds blow, I'll take you there Here we go, baby, hold on No more worry, no more pain
The sun is always shining, and it never, ever rains, and it never, ever rains
And it never, ever rains
