My parachute failed to open my tank ran out of air
It's clear that my mind is collapsing there was a time when you told me you cared

I'm no longer asking for solace
I'm a rabbit caught in your snare
I'm no longer out to seek shelter
I simply thought that I'd come prepared

X2 each

I've read this book back to back
I survived a shark attack
I've shot, I've starve, I've drown, been born anew
Yet my defense in laid to waste
A fatal bite of deadly snake
The worst case scenario is you
