My head was really hurting
I had to take her to Apollo Bay
My head was really hurting
I had to take her to Apollo Bay

All my downtime makes me restless
All my small-talk make me nervous

My head was really hurting
I had to take her to Apollo Bay

Vietnamese and six or seven VB's
Vietnamese and six or seven VB's

All my days stretch out before me
All my nights just get away from me

Vietnamese and six or seven VB's

All twelve apostles can't be seen from the shore
All twelve apostles they can't be seen from the shore

Some hide behind the others,
There's always people taking pictures.

All twelve apostles were convinced
That they were walking with their savior

Gonna drive around, gonna come down the coast by myself
I'm gonna drive around, I'm gonna come down the coast by myself

All my days stretch out before me
And my nights just go to hell

Gonna drive around, gonna come down the coast by
myself
