I don't know your name but girl you're the one
And if you feel the same
Well do whatever you could want
And we can rule the world,
Rule the world, uh yeah
Rule the world, rule the world

There are so many ways that you and I could scheme
No I won't hesitate, when you're right next to me
From the moment I saw you,
Well I knew that it was done
We could cross any ocean and take with us the sun
Like this and be so simple, around the globe we could change the tempo
People waiting for our signal, but it's whatever you're into

I don't know your name but girl you're the one
And if you feel the same
Well do whatever you could want
And we can rule the world,
Rule the world, uh yeah
Rule the world, rule the world

Well if I were a camera baby,
In with , zoom
So hopefully I would capture you
Doing that what you do
You got me so captivated, serving the way you move
I spot you out of the crowd, , outside of the room
I sweep you off with the smoothest side of the broom Congratulations, you've officially been introduced
By the looks of this jokers and posers you're talking to You're probably wanting something new

I don't know your name but girl you're the one
And if you feel the same
Well do whatever you could want
And we can rule the world,
Rule the world, uh yeah
Rule the world, rule the world.
