I, I wonder why twisted things get you cry no matter how hard we try it seems that my voice never reach to the sky then I see the tears down from your eyes to realize still livin in the pain eat sleep walk under the rain feelin like the universe on my shoulder keep speakin to myself shoulda woulda coulda but yeah I know this change with the new day

Lose one way
love you Calling
you

ç- 'éi" ~ã
New days
Wake up Wake
New ways New day
New days

tell me where you headin to uh clock tick tockin to the end of the story and it's so fast for me I came thru the last page of the book but they, never got me a chance to show you what the lovers do tell me what I gotta say what I gotta do if u tell me this's the only way yeah think I gotta move you gotta track what you want on your way I ain't gonna cry myself out for the new days

All is over down
