"Na Na Na"

I ain't taking sides on your war
This fight only hurt us more
If you burn our hope there's no word left to say

Singing Nanana, Nanana

Everyday I'll pray for this world
I sing for the ones I love Tomorrow there will be more souls left to save

Singing Nanana, Nanana

To wait for our dream to fade, it's a mistake
They took our spirits away into the haze

Singing Nanana, Nanana

I've seen children fall by the way
I've walk through what people forsake
I'm watching the sky slowly turning to grey

Singing Nanana, Nanana

My sorrow is turning to hate, it's a mistake
They took our spirits away into the haze

I'm singing Nanana, Nanana
