(Child)

Daddy would you sing me a lullaby?

Take my hand and I'll walk you through the fire.
Fear no evil I will cover you my child.
And when the waves come crashing all around,
I will be the one to lift you off the ground.
And when you hear this lullaby,
Know I think of you every time.

Because you're my night light,
My night light,
You're the night light in my dark.

Take my hand and I'll walk you down the aisle
Let her look to be the grace behind your smile
Find a love that mirrors who we are
Keep the wonder in your eyes and shine like stars
And when you feel the tears well up inside,
Just call my name and I'll let you cry.

Because you are my night light,
My night light,
You're my night light in my dark.

And when you feel the tears well up inside,
Just call my name.
Call my name.

You're my night light,
My night light.
You're the night light in my dark

(Children)

You're my night light,
My night light.
You're the night light in my dark.
You're the night light in my dark.
Cause you're my night light.
