I need grace
I was really never listening
Though the sound of your voice I just cannot ignore
And I've been dancing in the dark with emptiness
I think you found my weakness
A sly of hand, one look and I'm a mess
There's always something in the way

Stand back and watch me fall
Just like a house of cards I will come down and down
again
Down and down again
Stand back and watch me fall
Just like a house of cards I will come down and down
again
But you deal me again

I need a second chance just like before Cause I've always aimed to please myself as I shove you out the door
And I know your name has risen on my heart
I know I don't deserve you
Every choice I make tears us apart
But you still remain the same

Stand back and watch me fall
Just like a house of cards I will come down and down
again
Down and down again
Stand back and watch me fall
Just like a house of cards I will come down and down
again
But you deal me again

I need grace
You always give it away, give it away
You always bring me back to life when I hit the floor

Stand back and watch me fall
Just like a house of cards I will come down and down
again
Down and down again

Stand back and watch me fall
Just like a house of cards I will come down and down
again
But you deal me again
