I wanna say so much but I don't want you to leave I wanna touch your heart with mine I want you to know I'm on your side and it's easy to pretend, that everything's alright it's not easy to let go of the things you thought you'd always know just don't run away tonight don't leave..believe me there's so much more than this, so much more than this

don't leave..believe me
there's a voice calling out your name, calling out your name until you're..

and everyone said so much without saying anything empty words fill the air and it's hard to tell who really cares
and it's easy to pretend that everything's alright it's not easy to let go of the things you thought you'd always know it's time to walk with open eyes and don't leave..believe me there's so much more than this, so much more than

there's a voice calling out your name, calling out your name until you're... gone just don't let it slip away, until you're gone there's no promise of tomorrow..till you're gone and will I say my final words just to watch you walk away and not return?

there's so much more than this, so much more than
there's a voice calling out your name, calling out your
name

there's so much more than this, so much more than
and don't leave..believe me... there's so much more than this..so much more then this..
