Somewhere in the city
As the millions queue for bread
All around you they lose their reason
But you keep your head
And if you ever stop to wonder
And they tell you not to care
Be strong my son, don't worry
For I am always there

I'll stand alone, I'll stand alone, I'll stand alone, I'll stand alone
I'll stand alone, I'll stand alone, I'll stand
alone, I'll stand alone
I'll stand alone

Somewhere in the city
Stalks the angel of death
And she feeds on every sinner
Who lies with every breath
And if the light is often hidden
It's there for you to see
And my son, I will fight
For your right to liberty

Chorus

And if they ever try to hurt you
They'll know not what they've done
For Hell will hath no fury
Like the wrath from me, my son
And I will always love you
And you'll always be my son

Chorus
