

No Warning "Pushing On"

With everything that goes on
When I never thought it would get worse
There always seems to be something more
That pushes me away

Pushing on
Can't stop now

I relive, I remember, it sticks and it stays
All this time spent alone recapping the days
Pace myself, push myself
Pushing on, I'm all I've got

I won't let it stop
But I've got to slow down
Slowly I will rot
Looking out for all I keep around

I can't stop now
I can't stop now
