Believe the lies I tell you
This world will never break your heart
The truth is that we know
That words can't take your dreams apart (Apart, apart)

We make believe with living
The scripts reminds us who we are
The faulty act of breathing
Your eyes have never seen this far

Chorus
I'll break you I'll save you
I'll keep you captive in my heart
I see you I'll save you
And now the end is where we stop

The eye of wicked dreaming
Will climb so high and fall so far
No one can't stop the bleeding
So take these scars for what they are

Chorus
I'll break I'll save you
I'll keep you captive in my heart
I see you I'll save you
And now the end is where we stop
The end

I'll break you I'll save you
I'll keep you captive in my heart
I see you I'll save you
And now the end is where we stop

I'll break you I'll save you
I'll keep you captive in my heart
I see you I'll save you
And now the end is where we stop
