I'm so sorry, I keep interrupting
What were you gonna say
You caught him cheating, I don't blame you

For walking away
I know where you're coming from
It sounds like where I've been
Oh, there I go interrupting
Your story once again

Go on, go on
You were saying how a fool can
Only fool you so long

It's true, it's so true
When they do you like that
What else can you do
But go on

Our conversation won't change nothing
But it's sure nice to talk
With somebody who's been cut of

The same old cloth
You know how you said happiness
Can't be found looking back
If you don't mind maybe we can talk
A little more about that

Go on, go on
You were saying this is better
Than sitting at home

It's true, it's so true
When they do you like that
What else can you do

But go on

Even when you see no reason to
Don't wait to live life
'Cause it won't wait for you

Go on, please go on
You were saying what don't kill us
Only makes us strong

It's true, that's so true
When they do you like that
What else can you do

But go on
Just go on Life goes on
And on
