The way that you light up a room And smile so sweetly it's true aint nothin 'bout you I don't love never need for push or shove

There's no-one else that makes me feel this way and for you here I'm thankful every day the writing that's on the wall says the time until no need to stall

And I just want to spend my time spending it with you because you are something that I can't seem to get enough of

And I feel like the luckiest guy and I never really stop to think why ain't nothin' 'bout you I don't crave there's always something left to save

There's no-one that could replace there's nothing that could erase the writing on the wall that's there there's nothing that I could compare

And I just want to spend my time
you are something that I can't seem to get enough of

spending it with you because time is something that I don't know how much I got of

I gotta gotta spend my time with you baby

And I wanna wanna spend my time with you lady

I gotta gotta spend my time with you baby

I wanna wanna spend my life with you baby

I gotta gotta spend my time with you lady

I gotta gotta spend my time with you lady

I gotta gotta spend my time with you lady

I gotta gotta spend my time with you lady
