Burnt out, restless and tired
Slipped a gear, clutch plate burning red
Kick-start a revolution
By kicking sand in the eyes of the fake

Sat here dreaming to the scream of the siren
Taking me of to the hospital
I gotta get it gotta get it all even
And re-shape this mould that is

Me
Absent without leave
Without interest or understanding
Letâ€™s say, I wonâ€™t be present for the time being

Living in a reoccurring nightmare
Another day of filament daylight
Pray for our salvation
As our souls are torn apart

Woke up screaming to the sound of the siren
Taking me off to the hospital
Now I get it, now I get it all even
If I canâ€™t re-shape this mould thatâ€™s

Me
Absent without leave
Without interest or understanding
Letâ€™s say, I wonâ€™t be present for the time being
Without interest or understanding
Leave my body and enter my mind

Me
Absent without leave
Without interest or understanding
Letâ€™s say, I wonâ€™t be present for the time being
Without interest or understanding
Never assuming what it takes
To leave my body and enter my mind
