Remember why you are here
And those who could not be
This is a treasure we could not sacrifice

Stop to smell the flowers
Watch the world go by
Take my hand
Open your ears
Don't shut your eyes

Blink for a second
And soak in all that you don't see
Blink for a second
Wake me up from this fantasy
Watch the world go on by
Take my hand don't shut your eyes

Forgotten thoughts will come to me
And save all my fear
This is a treasure we could not sacrifice

Stop to smell the flowers
Watch the world go by
Take my hand
Open your ears
Don't shut your eyes

Blink for a second
And soak in all that you don't see
Blink for a second
Wake me up from this fantasy
Watch the world go on by
Take my hand
Don't shut your eyes

This is what we won't sacrifice.
