Dust creeps of the concrete
A whirlwind of silence and stillness lost
On the footpath never dreaming of waking up

Through the curtains, I see the angle take to the air
But her clipped wings can not support her

We are the broken we are the fallen
Youâ€™ ll never take us alive
Down by the river a shift of a sliver
Your broken never alive
Talk up the rhetoric your guilt is pathetic
Youâ€™ re broken never a lie
Down by the river

Dust creeps off the concrete
A whirlwind of silence and stillness lost
On the footpath forever dreaming of waking up

Please wake up
Donâ€™ t just lie there

We are the broken we are the fallen
Youâ€™ ll never take us alive
Down by the river a shift of a sliver
Your broken never alive
Talk up the rhetoric your guilt is pathetic
Youâ€™ re broken never a lie
Down by the river
