"Yet We Breathe"

Visit "Yet We Breathe" on MotoLyrics.com

This mornings blurry light
Attacks my eyes within Shattered thoughts and wasted dreams
Is this life not what it seems Vacant stares and burnt our souls
Make us all feel alone

One life
Use it well my friend for all the times come and go

How do we float?
While all around us drown
Yet we breathe
As our lungs burn
We won't scream

Random days and lost nights is where we play are games
Random days and lost nights and we're all not insane
