I think I've stayed too long, but I ain't glad to go Back past the front door, there's someone sad and low

I climb into my office, I'm pulling away fast
Such a fool I forgot it, that drive could be my last

Driving far, on a distant road
Where we are, it's so hard to know
Say it for me, you'll be there for me
And you're gonna stay
When I'm days away

My comatose conscience, now it's clear and loud
Vince Gill on that radio, he's killing me now
If I could change the way I left, lord knows I would I hate that not too long ago, I knew where I stood

Driving far, it's a distant road
And where we are, sometimes I don't know
Say it for me, you'll be there for me
And you're gonna stay
When I'm days away
I'm just days away
