"Evilution" song overview: "Evilution" is a recent collaboration-track between dubstep DJ Datsik and Infected Mushroom debuted with visuals on February 28th on Rollingstone.com . The twitchy single incorporates styles from both artists, but also from other guest, Jonathan Davis. Fun and cool to listen to! Datsik debuts new material "Vitamin D" on April 10th.

Evilution lyrics

It's evilution!

It's evilution!

It's evilution!

Peace!

Time to rock!

Sometime's we seize the day

A heartless game we try to play

To take our lives and eat them up with full thrust

Make it go away!

To make it go away!

This twisted secret out to make us weak

Become the innocent breed

Try this we will

Go away!

It's evilution!

It's evilution!

It's evilution!

It's evilution!

Time to rock!

Time to rock, time to rock!

It's evilution! Just evilution!

Some time we seize the day

A heartless game we try to play

To take our lives and...

And make it go away!

To make it go away!

This .secret... make us weak

Go away!
