Drifting apart like 2 sheets of ice, my love
Frozen hearts growing colder, with time
There's no heat, from our mouths
Please take me back to my rich youth

And we were in flames,
I needed, I needed you
To run through my veins
Like disease, disease
And now we are strange, strangers

It's different now, grey face
Eyes burnt out, flames are gone now
Gloves are on
I have a feeling, love's gone mad
We're too similar
Loosing minds with comic fever
Shutting confined spaces
Lost in the dark
My heart taken, resting on your heart

And we were in flames,
I needed, I needed you
To run through my veins
Like disease, disease
And now we are strange, strangers

Wait for me to degrade
Before you go killing
Pray for waste of
Daylight speaks when
Slumbers keeping
Under the pain
Out of the veins
Underailing, I live in stains

My sheets
It's on piece of me
It's on piece of me
Oh winter, come
Oh winter, crush on
All the things that I once loved
Winter come,
Winter crush,
All of those things that I once had.
