Make this moment last forever
Take this song straight to the grave
Maybe tomorrow I'll be sorry,
Doesn't mean I've done ok.

Arrive to your final destination
Look back to all the steps you've made
It doesn't matter the path you've taken
Or the time you've spent away

So take my hand
Waste this day lost in the city highlights
I don't care, anymore
Take my hand
This is our last chance; I'm sad, coz tomorrow.
I won't be there, anymore.

Is this heading to an ending?
Is this driving me to hell?
But you're the only thing I left here
Hope you someday understand

Only few things left to remain
Our destiny and childhood dreams
But the end is never able
To destroy our memories

Maybe I'll regret it once you are gone
It's seems much better, forget it right now.
All the injuries and scars kept in my heart
Histories of pleasure and pain over time
Take my hand.
Now just take, Take my hand!
