Do you believe in destiny?
I close my eyes and dream that you are closer to me,
So follow me, and you will see,
Together we can touch the sky,
Were flying so high, high, higher.
(Do you believe?)
(In destiny)
I feel alive tonight,
Until the morning sky,
The lions at my heart will last forever,
And in my dreams I'll never let you go.
(Destiny)
I know you're near,
To be with me,
When something feels so good it's only a fantasy,
As time goes by,
I wonder why,
Will you be here with me someday, Im fading away.
I feel alive tonight,
Until the morning sky,
The lions at my heart will last forever,
And in my dreams I'll never let you go, you go.
(Do you believe?)
(In destiny)
I feel alive tonight,
Until the morning sky,
The lions at my heart will last forever,
And in my dreams I'll never let you go.
I feel alive tonight,
Until the morning sky,
The lions at my heart will last forever,
And in my dreams I'll never let you go, you go.
