Look around tell me what you see, we are products of technology
The nuclear age has left its mark, it's up to us to avoid the dark

You don't care what's around You you're blind and deaf Just sit back and watch TV Don't care what you're seeing Whey can't you look around And see your surroundings Learn to think for yourself Hear without listening, see without seeing, ignoring parts of reality
I'm wasting my time, I'm wasting my breath, on people who choose ignorance
