Breathe, exhale words, cause distress, make a scene, aftermath, destroy my dreams This curse was laid on me, the truth will carry on unseen
Cause she said, this is all she had left to say, is this real, moments fade, I hold the truth Fail to crave, my hatred, this nightmare, just wake me Can't let go, seduction, deception, best lay low. This is all I care for I represent the truth, the suffering that haunts your dreams, this is all I care for I hold the secrets that control your world, we hold the secrets to destroy your world.
Keep the world at bay, destruction through disarray, bitter and strange.
It's written on your face. Lock them away, never see the light of day, bound by Chains You cannot escape. Lock them away to never see the light of day
Bound by chains, the reasons for your suffering.
Reasons for suffering.
Said you can't shoot me the fuck down. We only hate and we suffer
We cannot live with each other, we only hate and we suffer
We, can't live this lonely. Can't shoot me down for merely trying Can't shoot me down for merely trying, I only tried
We cannot live with each other, we only hate and we
suffer
We cannot live with each other, we only hate and we
suffer
We can't live this lonely lie.
