Here comes the weekend, honey
What's going on?
Do we put our feet up, honey
Or call it all night long?
Oh, baby, whatever
I'm with you

Are we staying home?
Are we going downtown?
Are we dressing up baby
Or dressing down?
Oh, whatever
Baby, I'm with you

You're my sunshine in the morning
You're my stars at night
You're all I ever dream about
Anything you want

Well, baby, that's all right
Anything you don't
I can learn to live without

As long as I'm with you
'Till the sun stops burning
I'm with you
'Till the world stops turning
'Till the end of time
Oh, I'm with you

You're my sunshine in the morning
You're my stars at night
You're all I ever dream about

Anything you want
Well, baby, that's all right
Anything you don't
I can learn to live without

As long as I'm with you
'Till the sun stops burning
I'm with you

'Till the world stops turning
'Till the end of time
Baby, I'm with you
'Till the end of time
Oh, baby, I'm with you
