Repeating everything in my head
Stuck on the words that I knew you said
I think you thought what you didn't know
When will we come for those things you broke?

But it hurts
Every single day
But you're not listening
Nothing will change

Stuck in this rut and I'm coming up short
And I try to reach out but I'm playing the part
Well I don't know what you were thinking
But I think
You thought wrong

Gone are the days when I used to choke
My faith in you has gone up in smoke
I'm not enough for you now and I never will
I've finally escaped from this living hell
Your hell

Now I finally see
Just where I wanna be Cause I'll never do my best
Without this feeling in my chest
In my chest
