Today
I start a new page
Today I start the rest of my life
Donâ€™t try to hold me down
Today Iâ€™m free

Fuck what you thought of me
Picture perfect portrait in the mirror
Echoes of a heavenly voice
Disposition of a man that could change the world

This time I
Can breathe the way I want to
Speaking in my own words
No longer
A puppet to a game
This time I
Reset

The wounds Iâ€™ve had before
Have already begun to heal
What once was my every burden
Broken as I seal the deal
Iâ€™ve never felt this way before
No longer filled with remorse
Ee-uh

This time I
Can breathe the way I want to
Speaking in my own words
No longer
A puppet to a game
This time I
Reset

But still I canâ€™t forget whatâ€™s led me to this redirection
One thing that caused me pain
Suffering from an infliction
You
