I had someone to hold me tight.I was high then she left me low.I'm walking lonely streets in Winter.Feel's like the final show.

I'm lost in memories.That I can't hide away.You're gone, my soul will freeze.Is this the price I pay...?
Cold Embracing, still amazing.My everlasting love..Do you hear the calls I'm sending out?Cold Embracing,
now I'm facing.The emptiness inside.Take my word and I will make it right.Or it's the end of my life.

I see you walking next to me.There was magic in your eyes.The crowd would stare and then we brought.The fantasies to life.

All lost in memories.Just on my mind.Ain't there a chance for me.To make it up in time...?

Cold Embracing, .....

Cold Embracing, .....
