Last night I spent a night on the town

- mama don't know it, daddy don't know it - a cocktail waitress turned me upside down

(then she said I'd be her lover and darling)

2 a.m. I'd board the silver train

- mama don't know it, daddy don't know it - only to find her with her whips and chains then she said I'd be her one night stand 'cos

Chorus:

I'm living on my own (he's living on his own)

out a dusk and out at dawn to wake the morning sun

(he's living on his own) I'm living on my own

(he's never going home till the night's gone)

I let the dishes pile up in the sink

- mama don't know it, daddy don't know it -

don't need to justify the bathroom stink

(cos' I have broken out of teenage guidance)

no one left to say what I should do

- mama don't know it, daddy don't know it - don't like vegetables only meat that's why I feel like a cat in heat, yeah this is just the way I live my life

I don't need a mother or a wife 'cos some say I'm cruel and at times I'm mean

Chorus

- mama don't know it, daddy don't know it -

I'd pick up a chick to get the homeground clean that's just the way that I want to be, yeah

Chorus
