A man fell in love with a man
And it seemed it was something good they'd found But the Mormons over in California they say that it's just sin raining down
'Cause love doesn't know that it's bound

A girl went and fell for a girl
And somewhere in the night where they lay curled up There's a threat to our family set, they're termites boring holes in the wood
'Cause love doesn't know when it's no good.

And I said someone put a chain on love
'Cause right now there's just far too much of it And Jesus taught it, but now we've caught it and we won't let it run wild again
'Cause Love doesn't know when it's a sin

A white found her soul in a black But can't they see how that is an attack 'Cause pretty colors can't love each other, they're crossing all our favorite lines
'Cause love doesn't know that it's not blind

And I said someone put a chain on love
'Cause right now there's just far too much of it And the former meek they won't turn their cheek they're aiming at the next to come along 'Cause Love doesn't know when it's wrong

And I said someone put a chain on love
'Cause right now there's just far too much of it And Jesus taught it, but now we've caught it and we
won't let it run wild again
'Cause Love doesn't know when it's a sin
