See hereâ€™s the problem girl you not at home with me let's go to my crib youâ€™ ll be my new property Ferrari, Lamborghinis, Mercedes, Maserati twenty four carat gold trim up in the freaking lobby.

Nah Iâ€™m just playing girl got no money to my name, guarantee you I can own and play this game

On a more serious note your fine as hell, you float my boat, my heart as well on a more serious note you blow my mind youâ€™ re like a remote got me stuck on rewind

Cuz this moment is nice the feeling is right you and I were one of a kind(x2)

Imagine you and me on a love making spree your love is my component take this chance and seize the moment. When I look at you my heart flies through the roof anticipation kills me every time I think of you

Cuz this moment is nice the feeling is right you and I were one of a kind(x2)

Early summer time knew I would make you mine when I first laid eyes on you girl I was love struck blind. Have you ever fell in love in a matter of a day, but then she packed her bags. Left and went away

On a more serious note your fine as hell you float my
boat my heart as well on a more serious note you blow
my mind youâ€™ re like a remote got me stuck on

Cuz this moment is nice the feeling is right you and I were one of a kind(x2)
