As you take off your bandage
Ask yourself if you're alright now
Take a break from the world
And all the ones you love

Let it out as you yell it
Might as well cause you're all alone
Name in vein while you're at it
Feels so good

I've said a lot of things,
I've done it all but not this
I got to figure out why the world is so big

While you hide in the forest
You engage with the animals
Gathering all around you I
It's what you wanted all along

Through the secrets and knowledge
And opinions from all around
When the sky turns to water,
You'll know what to do

I've said a lot of things,
I've done it all, but not this
I got to figure out why the world is so big
I've gone way, way out
Way out of bounds
I'll do anything, tell me how

I'll tell you to get by my side
I'll tell you to get by my side
I'll tell you to get by my side
I'll tell you to get by (Repeat)

I've said a lot of things,
I've done it all but not this
I got to figure out why the world is so big

I've said a lot of things,

I've done it all but not this
I got to figure out why the world is so big
I've gone way, way out
Way out of bounds
I'll do anything tell me how
